Module 1

Leading Yourself

Learn how to understand context, make good choices and handle complexity and ambiguity. Define the next chapter of your life. Learn how to develop and use your intuitive intelligence. Master the ‘inside-out’ and personal dimensions of leadership: identify your ethical compass, and the values and vision that define your character as a leader. Great leadership begins with the self, extends to the team and flows through the organisation to create a better society.

Module 2

Leading High-Performing Teams

Learn an intuitive approach to mastering organisational complexity. Learn how to create alignment around a common purpose, create a sense of belonging, move people out of their comfort zones, break old patterns, create new habits, build trust, and generate engagement and commitment to results. Leading High-Performing Teams is a powerful framework for aligning people and culture with strategy across your organisation.

Module 3

Strategic Focusing®

What’s the one critical issue, which if you could ‘nail’ it, would have the biggest, most positive impact on performance and results? In the Strategic Focusing module you will use a real-life situation to learn how to align and concentrate your attention on the few things that will create the greatest breakthrough.

This is a ‘think-and-do’ module. Learn how to develop new strategies and drive execution in complex and rapidly changing environments.

OXFORD LEADERSHIP™

OLDP Leadership Model

Take Destiny by the Scruff of the Neck... and Lead:

Life is shaped by habits, environment, fate and luck...
...but, for some people, there comes a time to take destiny by the scruff of the neck, and lead. These people see the whole picture. They know where they'd like to go, and who they'd like to go there with. They know their weaknesses, and leverage their strengths. They clarify their purpose. They clarify what they will stand for, and what they won't. They make bold choices and tough decisions. They align their team. They engage people. They devolve authority. They focus everyone's attention. They concentrate their resources.

Each individual accepts absolute personal responsibility for the results. They are resilient, agile and courageous. Together, they create breakthroughs. They execute, with fierce resolve. It's within your power to create the life you want. You can become a great leader.

Lead yourself, lead your team, lead your organisation and contribute to building a better world.

“OLDP and Strategic Focusing enabled us to build a new corporate culture based on trust & collaboration, focused on the development of the whole company in an eco-based way, instead of the traditional command-control and competitive ego-based way, which had previously restricted our growth corporately and personally. Brian Bacon’s approach is a pragmatic way of getting business results by connecting people with spirit, wholeness and learning.”

“Leadership is a potent combination of strategy and character, but if you ever have to be without one, be without the strategy.”
